Monday, April 20th 7 pm

Run: June 5, 6, 12, 13, 14*, 19, 20

Comedy

A Long Island mansion is the setting for this hilarious romp that includes a pious God-fearing tycoon, his long suffering wife, a prodigal son and a pair of kooky twins. When God arrives the temptations begin. Will he renounce God or will he be visited by all the afflictions you can imagine? You'll find yourself asking, "How much can a man love God?" Neil Simon's interpretation of the biblical Book of Job will leave you laughing all the way home!

THE ANDREWS BROTHERS

By Roger Bean

Director: Mark A. Zimmerman
Cast 3 men 1 woman

Auditions:

Saturday, May 16th 2 pm
Monday, May 18th 7 p[m

Run: July 17, 18, 24, 25, 26*, 31,
Aug. 1, 7, 8

Musical

Mistaken identities, madcap comedy, and the greatest music of the 1940s fill this sweet and hilarious show. Three soldiers find themselves giving the performance of a lifetime when a certain singing trio of siblings fail to arrive at their USO gig. "Boogie Woogie Bugle Boy," "Slow Boat To China," "Shoo Shoo Baby", and "Don't Sit Under The Apple Tree" are some of the favorites in this valentine to the heroes of World War II.

DEATHTRAP

By Ira Levin

Directed by Alex Nine
Cast 3 men 2 women

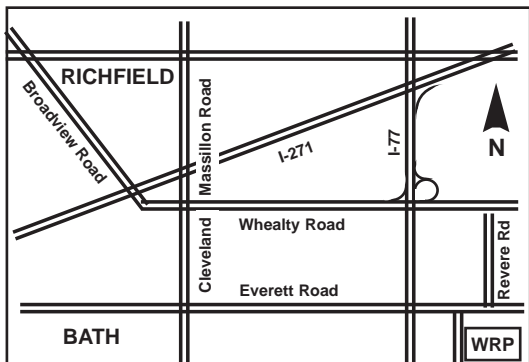

Auditions:

Sunday, June 28th 2pm
Monday, June 29th 7pm

Run: Sept. 11,12,18,19, 20*, 25, 26

Mystery

A thriller that asks how far will a playwright go to have a hit play. Every character in this play will stop at nothing to possess the play and pass it off as his own work. Clues seem to be delivered on a silver platter but which ones are real and which are ringers. A psychic can only guess but the guessing is lots of fun. Deathtrap was one of the biggest hits in the history of Broadway.
